Richard:

Hope all is well. My reason in calling yesterday was that I thought it would be useful for us to talk about the general goings on in Park City from the legal viewpoint. We are in the middle of due diligence on a project and at a minimum, the prospective buyers are going to want to talk with you about various issues and timing. We have told them that any true document work will have to wait until fall, but I believe that they will want to have some conceptual discussions. I thought therefore it would be useful for us to meet and or just talk.
